Psychic Fair

Psychics, Healers and other practitioners from all over the area are coming together in November to raise a lot of the money we need to keep operating

Our annual fund raiser this year is a psychic and healing fair, featuring many of the area's top psychics, healers and other practitioners.

They each have graciously volunteered their time to help us raise the funds needed to help cover our operating costs. Many, many thanks to them!

Each will offer 15-minute "mini readings" or healings for a fee of $15 for the first session and $10 for each subsequent session—except for Aura photography which costs $20.

In fairness to everyone involved, no one may obtain a repeat session with the same practitioner.

Scheduling will be at the door on a first-come first-served basis. The only exception is for those wishing a Mayan astrology reading—they must register ahead of time—send your birth data (month, day, year only) and $15 check to Maryphyllis Horn, 24 Creekside Circle, Pittsboro, NC 27312 by October 25th. (If you don't get this newsletter in time, please phone her at 919-541-0260.)

Those wishing a traditional astrology reading need to bring their birth chart or their exact birth information (minute, hour, month, day, year and place of birth).

The doors will open at 6:45pm and the first session will begin at 7:15pm. We will stop at 9:15pm. Readings will not be recorded, in respect of the confidentiality of neighboring readers.

Lightworks newsletter is published monthly (except July) by Spiritual Frontiers Fellowship of the Triangle, P.O. Box 12773, Raleigh, NC 27605-2773. (<http://www.ncneighbors.com/1169/>)

Tarot reader David Shell is one of the practitioners coming to the Psychic Fair.

Coming in December: Animal Communication

Telepathy is the foundation of all communication in the Universe, says Animal Communicator Tera Thomas, our December speaker.

“Whenever you say or think a word, there is an idea, a feeling, or a picture that is transmitted to others,” she says. “This unspoken language behind all language is telepathy, and it is understood by all living beings. In our unique human way, we find words to express our thoughts and feelings. Animals do not use words, but they certainly have feelings and are able to express them very emphatically through telepathy.”

Learn how animals communicate with all other species and what often prevents humans from receiving their messages. Find out how telepathic communication can help you understand an animal's behavior, problems, needs and feelings; enhance your relationships with other species, and create more joy and harmony in your life.

Through heartwarming real life animal stories, Tera will lead you to a greater understanding of the animals in your life. You will experience a guided meditation to take you inside the body of an animal and feel through the animal senses.

Deepening your relationship with animals can enhance all the relationships in your life and develop your conscious awareness of your kinship with all living beings, Tara says.

“Telepathy,” she says, “is the language of feelings, spoken by all species in the universe. Through this language we can learn to better understand the emotional and spiritual nature of animals. Learn how telepathic communication can help you understand animals' behavior, problems, needs, and feelings. This telepathic connection can also enhance your relationship with your animal companions and create a deeper understanding and kinship with all of life.”

Tera has been working professionally as an Animal Communicator since 1996. She offers telephone consultations for animals and their people and teaches Beginning and Advanced Workshops to humans to open their own lines of communication with animals and nature. Tera is a Reiki Master and offers Reiki Attunements as well.

Past Life Regression

By Dr. Barnsley Brown

Most people would probably agree that the past informs the present and even the future. We make decisions based on past experiences, lessons, successes, and failures.

Indeed, the past, present, and future merge as a palimpsest, an ancient parchment with layer upon layer of writing that we can scratch away and decipher as part of our soul's growth.

This palimpsest records not only our experiences in this lifetime but in other lifetimes as well. Hence our fears, talents, and abilities that usually have no rational explanation from this lifetime can be considered carry-over or vestiges from previous lifetimes.

When we access these fears, talents, and abilities through a past life regression, we become privy to the wellspring of creativity that is within us. We are able to resolve situations in our present lifetime while opening to a creative flow and awareness that brings us into alignment with our soul's highest purpose.

The past life regression thus serves as a catalyst for the lessons we need to learn as well as to live, and is a powerful tool for personal growth.

Barnsley Brown, M.Sc., Ph.D., and Reiki Master. She offers past life regressions, wellness consulting, creative writing workshops, and Reiki classes and individual sessions.

Reiki

By Vickie Penninger

Many people ask if it is appropriate to send Reiki long distance to persons they feel are in need of help, but who may not be asking for help.

Reiki should always be offered to others for the highest good of all, asking that Divine Will be done. Ask that if the energy is rejected by the Higher Self of that person, that it be sent instead to Mother Earth or to a particular country or situation where there is turmoil.

If the person is unconscious, in a coma, or is demented, offer Reiki directly to the Higher Self, always for the highest good. You may receive a message-some internal guidance- that the person would be willing to accept Reiki or it may be clear to you that the person is not going to be accepting of the energy.

Many times we feel that it is our responsibility to "do all, be all, heal all." We must remember that we are simply the channelers of this spiritually guided life force energy. It is our responsibility to facilitate healing, not to actually heal. Each person is responsible for his own healing and each person may define healing in his own way.

My personal feeling is that Reiki is intelligent; goes to where it is needed and can do no harm. I would rather offer Reiki to someone than not, knowing that I have asked that Divine Will be done, not my own personal will.

Vickie is a Reiki Master/Teacher and offers Reiki classes and private healing sessions by appointment.
