Walk-Ins: Messengers for the Now

Concepts regarding help from other dimensions are ancient. Is humanity being aided by incoming souls, messengers, who take shortcuts to deliver an urgent message? Walk-ins, a term coined by Ruth Montgomery, introduced an old concept made new in our time. Montgomery has identified our October speaker, Carol Parrish, as a walk-in who entered human experience with a mission. Hear Carol Parrish tell her story as we explore why messengers enter into human form behind the personality of another.

Believing they are to assist in a desperately needed change of awareness, a number of these individuals have revealed themselves and their message. Parrish's discussion of this topic, little understood and too often glamorized by ego or ignorance, will provide new understanding of the process. Messengers who embrace the challenge are empowered by dedication to their work and their connection with the inner world as they seek to serve. Others must come to understand the significance of why the walk-in experience is permitted. Parrish will present challenging ways to look at this controversial issue.

Founder and director of the intentional community of Sparrow Hawk Village, Pastor of Light of Christ Community Church and Dean of its seminary, Sancta Sophia, Carol Parrish always finds time for teaching and writing, her favorite of many pursuits. Long recognized as an inspired spiritual leader, Carol has stimulated many people to rejoice in their oneness with God. Many find hope in her lucid explanations of how certain fundamental truths, which underlie all major religions, can guide us in these changing times. Her presentation of the esoteric aspects of early Christianity, free of doctrine and adornment, reinforces our acceptance of the higher consciousness.

Dr. Parrish's most recent of many honors is the 1997-98 Earl Award for Religious Futurist of the Year. Her books include Messengers of Hope: The Walk-in Phenomenon, Adventure in Meditation, each of three volumes a winner of the annual Athena Award for Excellence in Mentoring, Reflections, The New Dictionary of Spiritual Thought, The Book of Rituals, The Aquarian Rosary and The New Age Handbook on Death and Dying. We are delighted to welcome this renowned speaker for a talk you will not want to miss!

Workshop:

Evolutions: Human, Devic, ET

about space beings—what is known, what their purpose may be and what type of interaction occurs between humanity and the angels with these beings. Who are the extra-terrestrials and who are the meta-terrestrials? Why and how do these evolving families interact?

As humanity awakens to new interest in the devas and the work of nature, we will learn what is appropriate. What do these unseen kingdoms have to offer at this time of initiation? Is there substance to the persistent reports of contacts with both angels and space beings? This workshop explores Earth's great family and how each is a part of the whole. Our time together will be exciting and fun.

To register early, please call ??? at ????, or you may sign up at the meeting on Thursday, October 4. Registration cost after October 4 or at the door will be $100.00. So sign up early!
