

In the Company of Angels

May 2003

Lightworks

Issue 177

'Angels surround us,' says Susan. 'Angels appear to us as visions of Light; sometimes they appear as humans, and sometimes God uses us as Angels for others. Let's talk about who and what Angels really are, and how you can go about living your life in the continual company of Angels.'

In an entertaining and loving presentation, Susan Kaney will share some of the many and amazing real-life experiences and adventures she has had with Angels during her life. She will also share with you wisdom and knowledge she has gained from Angels, along with motivational techniques that can help to open the Spiritual doors of your inner self. These techniques will help you become more aware of the continual and active presence of Angels that surround you on a daily basis.

Susan Kaney has been actively involved in metaphysics for over 33 years, as both a lecturer and organizer for metaphysical groups around the country. Her entry into metaphysical studies began at age 17 when she was pulled out of her body by an Angel of Light and told that God had a specific life mission for her to accomplish. She is the author of the highly regarded book Angel Crossing, and is a regular contributor to Concepts Magazine out of Anaheim, California.

Susan is also a co-founder of the Southeastern Conference, a week-long spiritual gathering held yearly in Greensboro, NC, which is now in its eleventh year. Join us on May 1 and prepare to fully enjoy yourself as you learn to live your life 'In the Company of Angels.'

Meditation

This month's early meditation will be a sound meditation led by Denise Gregory. Over the past several years, Denise has been the custodian of a sacred gong that has been an integral part of Denise's healing, meditation and shamanic journey work - for herself and group led practice. It has a wide range of over- and under-tones that bring depth and richness to meditation practice. By connecting with the group energy, Denise uncovers the sounds waiting to be heard, allowing what is "needed" for that moment to unfold. This month's gathering will explore the use of these tones to bring the mind and body to a place of clarity, rest and peace.

Denise Gregory is a journeyer and appreciative observer of the sacredness in the every day occurrences of life. The early meditation begins at 6:30 pm in the Vaughn Wing. Please arrive on time, to optimize the energetics of the group body.
