The colors we choose—in our clothes, the food we eat, our creative pursuits, home decoration, and work environment—reflect messages from the deep knowing part of our being. Color is the mirror of the soul, permeating every aspect of our lives and generating significant emotions, but our awareness of color is often buried beneath the surface of our waking consciousness.

Psychic, color, and aura experts Elizabeth Harper and Kala Ambrose will describe the power and presence of color in our lives and how it affects us on the physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual levels. Our personal goddesses, angels, and guides use color to inspire us on your journeys through life; understanding and using the symbolism of color, which we will learn to do in this program, can help us interpret the messages and strengthen our communication with these spiritual guardians.

Every day, waves of color-filled energy wash over us: Pink invokes love, green creates space, violet inspires reverence. It's not necessary to be a therapist, healer, artist, or psychic to experience the potential growth opportunities and awakening effects of color. Anyone with a desire for a deeper understanding of color can learn to recognize the revealing qualities of their "true colors" and the messages they convey. Elizabeth and Kala will teach us how.

They will also lead a meditation for connecting with our personal best colors; present a version of Elizabeth's "Colorscope" oracle designed for Triangle area energy; and connect us with our specific divine feminine goddesses assigned according to birth month.

We will discuss unique characteristics in auras, review how they were depicted historically, and reveal how the aura is changing in the 21st century.
