Master the Secret of Your Relationship to the Universe

We all want to master the secret of living life without confusion, using the skills we brought with us and mastering our own situations. To do so, we must distinguish between a theory of life and a way of life: Are we merely thinking about life, or are we involved in life? The difference between feeling successful and being successful occurs when you become sincere about wanting to know your true self. The wisdom that comes from our experiences can make life practical and fulfilling.

Join us for Dawn Overstreet's program about our relationship with ourselves and with our world. She will offer tools we can use to see that the more we know and understand ourselves, the more we can accomplish without being hindered by outside influences. For example, an "energy elevator" technique will demonstrate how the power of collective energy can accomplish great things. The tools and techniques help us make better decisions about where we fit in our lives and how we want to invest our energy. Through consistent routines, we can move beyond the limitations that often are taught us in our early lives.

Where did I come from? Where am I? Where am I going? These are questions most of us are asking. Each of us is unique because of our experiences of life. What we learn from our experiences brings the wisdom that allows us to be examples to others in the community and thus to the world. Claiming the right to be ourselves and to express the creativity that we are is a natural process.

We are soul or energy, with our energies are intertwined, but with our physical bodies we live in a physical world. Understanding this brings us a comfortable feeling of being at home in our physical bodies no matter where we are, what we are doing, or what we seek to accomplish in the world—in other words, we learn to respect that we have purpose and to appreciate our reasons for visiting planet Earth.

Based in Roanoke, Virginia, Dawn Overstreet has shared her message on talk shows and as the subject of newspaper features throughout the United States and Canada for over 30 years. As a lecturer, consultant, and workshop facilitator, she shows how stressful situations can cloud our inner sensitivity, leaving us feeling dissatisfied and lacking direction in our lives and, with the tools and techniques of Inner Peace Movement^(R) programs, offers the opportunity to clarify the road back to who we really are and to our true feelings. See www.IPMInternational.org for more information.

Take the mystery out of "the secret" and learn how to be in your own niche to build your personal spiritual organization and your world. Once you understand that you are a soul, currently traveling in a physical body, life on planet earth becomes simpler. Be proud of what you have accomplished so far, and look forward to what you have yet to accomplish. Dawn will show you how to enhance your sensitivity and your inner guidance to propel you to the next step on your spiritual journey.
