

Planetary Shift to the Feminine: Standing in a Position of Wisdom

September 2003

Lightworks

Issue 180

Our civilization stands at a point of crises between a past that has proven humanity to be very capable at whatever it chooses, and a future that is yet unformed.

At our Sept. 4 meeting, Carol Parrish will discuss a Cosmic Event that is taking place on Earth today. For the past many millennia, Shamballa has been the spiritual center of the Great White Brotherhood. It has a masculine focus and is located in the etheric realm over the Gobi Desert. According to Brazilian mystic Jose Trigueirinho, Shamballa is now going dormant. Though still in existence, it is no longer manifesting outwardly.

Emerging in its place is the feminine counterpart, Miz Tli Tlan. Located in the etheric realm over Northern Peru, Miz Tli Tlan extends from the Pacific Ocean to Lake Titicaca. Drawing from Trigueirinho's work, Carol will discuss the implications of this energetic shift from masculine to feminine and from east to west.

"Whenever we move from one age to another, things break down so the crystallized energy can be reworked. When excess occurs, it contributes to the "errors" that feed karma. We shall discuss the crises of our time, being mid-point on the bridge toward the new and yet unformed. What do various possible futures mean for the USA? Can we construct a future of love and light? What is its cost? Keep hope alive."

Founder and Director of the intentional community of Sparrow Hawk Village, Pastor of the Light of Christ Community Church and Dean of its seminary, Sancta Sophia, Carol Parrish always finds time for teaching and writing, her favorite of many pursuits. Long recognized as an inspired spiritual leader, Carol has stimulated many people to rejoice in their oneness with God. Many find hope in her lucid explanations of how certain fundamental truths which underlie all major religions can guide us in these changing times.

Dr. Parrish's most recent of many honors is the 1997-98 Earl Award for Religious Futurist of the Year. Her books include Messengers of Hope: The Walk-in Phenomenon, Adventure in Meditation, Reflections, The New Dictionary of Spiritual Thought, The Book of Rituals, The Aquarian Rosary and The New Age Handbook on Death and Dying.

The idea of new planetary chakras is surprising to many because it signals more than ever that the future is different from the known past. As the planet shifts, so goes the world. The new energy identified as feminine is anchoring itself in the Southern Hemisphere. What does this mean to the body, mind, and soul of human beings? Also, how does this fit with the accepted wisdom of the ages? We shall trace the historical documentation of this shift and how it has been expected by earlier teachers. We will also explore the many forms of change in this day of new ideas.
